

CLD Col. Christian Carde Symposium

(with funding provided by The Dressage Foundation)

Riders and Auditors are cordially invited to learn from one of the few riders and trainers in the world who has worn all the hats at the international level. Col. Christian Carde, former ecuyer en chef of the Saumur, the French National School, has been a member of the French Olympic Team, coach for the French team as well as chef d'equipe. He has trained numerous international horses and Margit Otto Crepin to an Olympic Silver Medal in Seoul. He is an FEI "I" judge and a recipient of the Légion d'Honneur.

Auditors may attend one day for $10 or pay $25 for all three days of auditing. Meals are extra. A group luncheon for riders, auditors and guests will be held on Friday and Sunday from noon to 1:45 p.m. The cost of lunch is $7 and will feature a PowerPoint lecture on The French School on Friday at MJ Kellner's and The FEI and the Judge's Role in the Art of Dressage on Sunday in the StarWest lounge. Auditors' fees received by May 25 will be discounted to $8 per day and $20 for all three days. Payment for meal reservations received by May 25 will be $6 for lunch and $18 for the banquet. Mail your payments to Alice Martin, 1736 S. Farmingdale Rd. New Berlin, IL 62670.

All participants and guests are invited to a banquet on Saturday evening in the StarWest arena which will feature an English translation of Col. Carde's lovely film, Piaffer et Passage, at the conclusion of the evening. Banquet tickets will be $20 each.
